Hi John,

My schedule is full Wednesday morning, but I am available Wednesday afternoon at 1 or 2, or Thursday morning at 10. Would any of those times work?

We are doing fine, keeping extremely busy between work and basically home-schooling our kids. Hope all is well with you too.

Thanks,
Stephanie

Hi Stephanie – I hope you are well. I left you a voice mail today but I'm not sure if you are retrieving calls from your phone at work.

We should speak briefly next week about the PRP Group's response to the US Dept of Interior comments on the draft FS Report. We have a document nearly done but there are a few points I want to run by you. I think Angela Carpenter has probably spoken to you about this already.

Are you available Wednesday morning to discuss this?
